

SUBMIT AN ARTWORK :

Artpricing covers the artworks of Fine Art categories, i.e. paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints and photographs, and does not cover antiques and furniture. We will respond to all requests provided that the data listed for a submitted artwork is sufficient and the relevance of the report be guaranteed.

1- Select an artist

We kindly remind you that the Artpricing service provides price estimates reports for the work by the artist him/herself, not for works attributed to the artist. The price range is given provided that the work is actually that of the selected artist. Artpricing is not an authentication service. We recommend that you contact an expert for such service.

2- Fill in the different fields to describe the artworks and submit your request

The more details you will provide and the more accurate the price range will be. Please note that we require that you give some details (fields marked with *) such as the size of the artwork (for sculptures the height is the only dimension taken into account), the category (paintings, sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs etc.), and an image of the artwork. Please make sure that you provide as much information as possible in the "Comments" field - you can report the writings on the back, if the work is signed, its provenance, and reference to a catalogue raisonné etc...

3- Confirmation of the feasibility of the Artpricing estimate report for the submitted artwork

By clicking on "Submit request" you will transfer the data that we will use to determine the feasibility of your Artpricing estimate report. This can take a few seconds. How much information we will be able to provide you with is specific to each artwork. The minimum you will get is an estimated price range for the work and the description of a similar artwork. If your artwork applies, you will also get a chart showing the changes in the estimated price range for the work since 1995, 2 more similar artworks, including the Personal Research for each work that will include the image and auction sales information.
